ing voted yourself, see that your neighbor goes and does likewise. EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS! See that the names of all five Presidential Electors, and of the Candidates for Congress and the Legislature, are on it and that these names are correctly spelled. LOOK OUT FOR ILLEGAL VOTES! Attempts will be made by the more reckless of the Buchaniers to smuggle large numbers of PRAUDULENT votes into the Ballot Boxes. Let our Challenging and Vigilance Committees look out for them. STAY ROUND THE POLLS! The presence of substantial citizens, of our leading Merchants, Mechanics and Business Men, at the polls, not only helps to keep the peace and prevent all disturbance, but it magnetizes the Republican voters and moves them to work with double zeal and vigor. ACT AS TICKET DISTRIBUTORS! Many men come to the polls still undecided how to vote. Labor with all such, and endeavor to win them to the Right. Be leady to furnish mallors to ull persons approaching the polls. SEE FAIR PLAY! Do not allow the Republican Voters to be crowded away from the polls, bullied out of their rights, or their honest choice improperly LOOK TO THE CANVASS! After the gross and infamous frauds prac-

Tom Corwin for Fremont.

The following letter from Hon. Thomas Conwin, of Ohio, in reply to a request to address a Fremont meeting in Cincinnati, shows where he is in the great contest to be decided to-day between Fremont and Buchanan, representing Preedom and Slavery :

CINCINNATI, Oct. 31st, '56.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 31st, '56.

Generals meeting of the Republican party, in Cincinnati, on Monday evening next, was received yesterday. You are not mistaken in supposing that I prefer the election of Col. Fremout to that of Mr. Buchanan. This has been my position from the beginning of the present contest. I certainly did, and do still, very much prefer Mr. Fillmore to either—believing and (as I think) knowing his opinions and principles touching the rights and interests of both South and North to be such as are prescribed by the Constitution, I still believe his election would do more than any event now possible to quiet the unnatural and be such as are prescribed by the Constitution, I still believe his election would do more than any event now possible to quiet the unnatural sud perhaps dangerous agitation of the public mind. The late election in Ohio, however, has, I think, shown that an electoral ticket for Mr. Filmore cannot be voted for with any hope of success in this State, and I feel bound by every obligation of duty to choose between the two remaining candidates, one or the other of whom must obtain the vote of Ohio. Although I cannot give my assent to all the doctrines professed by the Republican party in Ohio, I do yet feel certain that the great interests of the Republic may be more safely confided to a party who opposed the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and who have been and are still anxious to put an end to all the unhappy consequences flowing from that ill-judged measure, than to such as advocated the adoption of that policy and still approve it.

I do not know that it will be in my power to attend the proposed meeting, nor do I suppose that my presences on that occasion would add at all to the effect it is designed to produce. Business calls me from the city, this evening, and may detain me for two or three days hence.

My vote will be governed by the same principles which I have always herectofore adhered to When the my bits technic I deem it my thut to which her my biast choics. I deem it my thut to which her my biast choics. I deem it my thirt to ples which I have always heretofore adhered to Where two candidates are presented, neither of which are my first choice, I deem it my duty to select and vote for the least objectionable of the two. Were I a voter in Kentucky, where the contest is between Mr. Fillmore and Mr. Buchauan, I should certainly vote the Filmore ticket—in Ohio, where the choice is limited to Mr. Buchana and Col. Fremont, I shall vote for the latter. Your obelignt servant Your obedient servan THOM AS CORWIN.

As you well know, I was a candidate before the late Democratic County Convention for the momination to the office of County Treasurer, and it was well understood that I for a long time been promised this nemination, and laskes, Niugara and Ohio came in antily yesterday, the it was the wish of a large majority of the Democratic pernomination, and the true wishes of the party were not carried out. Rotation in office has atways been a cardi-nal principle of the Democratic party; but how is that principle carried out in our county? We see your after year the same clique of office holders through their offi-olal position and and the money belonging to the people by bribery and corruption, and the wire-polling of party, renominated to office, and this, too, when, after a fair FELLOW CITIZENS | I have been a citizen of Mil wanter for the past eight years.
